

National Classic Travel Assistance Funding

In partnership with the Friends of Canadian Simmental Foundation, the Young Canadian Simmental Association is offering travel bursaries to assist National Classic participants with travel-related costs. The goal is to encourage more young Simmental enthusiasts across Canada to participate in the National Classic.

What is being offered:

- 1) National Classic participants travelling from the Maritimes, Quebec, Ontario, and British Columbia will be awarded $500 per participant.
- 2) Participants travelling 300 km (one way) or more from Saskatchewan, Alberta, or Manitoba will be awarded pro-rated funding up to a maximum of $500. The amount of funding will be determined after the National Classic.
- 3) All funding will be sent out after the National Classic to ensure participation.
- 4) No application is required.

The National Classic will be held July 24 - 27, 2025, in Weyburn, Saskatchewan.
